Wine tourism

MONTPELLIER - Croix d'argent

Hard to imagine that vineyards can grow right in the middle of an ever-growing city? Well, the true story is not quite it seems to be. Our vineyards were the first settlers in the 17th century. Then, the city grew-up, saw this, went around and decided to preserve this quiet, calm spot where nature and human beings go along so well. You enter now Domaine de Rieucoulon and you are welcome to taste its wide range of charming wines for the most delicate palace.
