

Musée Atger

Museums

MONTPELLIER - Montpellier

It consists of a very fine collection of drawings from the Flemish, Italian, Dutch, German and French Schools, patiently assembled by the skilled art enthusiast, Xavier Atger, who left it to the Faculty of medicine in the last century.

The Faculty's library has numerous precious manuscripts from the 18th and the 19th centuries.

A remarkable collection of drawings by regional and Flemish masters from the Renaissance to the 19th century.

Opening periods

Open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday: from 1.30 pm to 5.45pm
