

The medieval mikve

Monuments

Montpellier - Montpellier

The medieval mikve is a ceremonial Jewish bath dating from the 13th Century. One reminder of the importance of the Jewish community who had played a leading role in the development and influence of Montpellier.

Situated in the heart of what was once the Jewish quarter, the bath is now one of the best-preserved mikves in Europe.

Practical information

The mikvé is closed during the archaeological excavations.

Personal information

1 rue Barralerie

34000 Montpellier

lat : 43.6111420 - lon : 3.8755224